

CHILD SAFE POLICY

Adventist Education
New South Wales

Seventh-day Adventist Schools (NSW) Child Safe Policy implements and is to be read and understood in conjunction with the ASA/ ADSAFE The National Child Safe Framework and the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations published by the Australian Human Rights Commission.

This Child Safe Policy, which includes our Statement of Commitment to Child Safety and Wellbeing, has been approved by the School/College's Board of Directors on 2021. It is to be reviewed on 2023.

This Child Safe Policy is published on our School/College's public website and provided to new Staff, and to Direct Contact Volunteers and Direct Contact Contractors at induction. It is also communicated through other mediums such as Confluence as well as annual reports, newsletters and parent information evenings.

Purpose

Our Child Safe Policy, which includes our Statement of Commitment to Child Safety and Wellbeing, was written to demonstrate the strong commitment of the School/College to child safety, and to provide an outline of the policies and practices that we have developed to keep our students safe, including from abuse or other harm.

It is an overarching policy that provides the key elements of our approach to the School/College as a child safe organisation and sets the tone for the School/College's entire Child Safe Program. The Child Safe Policy provides the framework for:

1

the implementation of the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations

3

the creation of a safe and supportive School/College environment and a positive and robust child safe culture

5

compliance with all laws, regulations and standards relevant to child protection and child safety in NSW

2

the development of work systems, practices, policies and procedures that promote child protection, safety and wellbeing within the School/College

4

the promotion and open discussion of child safety issues within the School/College

SCOPE

The School/College's Child Safe Policy applies to all adults in the School/College community, including Staff, Volunteers, Contractors, External Education Providers, parents/carers and other family members.

This Policy applies in all School/College environments, both physical and online, and on-site and off-site School/College grounds (e.g. camps and excursions).

Statement of Commitment to Child Safety and Wellbeing

All children and young people who come to Seventh-day Adventist Schools (NSW) have a right to feel and be safe. We are committed to providing a child safe and child friendly environment, where children and young people are safe and feel safe, and are able to actively participate in decisions that affect their lives.

We have a zero tolerance for child abuse and other harm and are committed to acting in students' best interests and keeping them safe from harm.

Each member of the School/College community has a responsibility to understand the important and specific role they play individually, and collectively, to ensure that the wellbeing and safety of all students is at the forefront of all that they do, and every decision they make.

The School/College's Statement of Commitment to Child Safety has been designed to reflect the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations.

The School/College regards its child safe responsibilities with the utmost importance and is committed to providing the necessary resources to ensure compliance with all relevant child protection laws and regulations and maintaining a child safe culture.

ALL CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE WHO COME TO SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST SCHOOLS (NSW) HAVE A RIGHT TO FEEL AND BE SAFE.

Child Safe Standards

The National Principles for Child Safe Organisations

The National Principles for Child Safe Organisations (National Principles) were developed by the Australian Human Rights Commission in response to recommendations of the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse. The National Principles are comprised of 10 Principles that were informed by, but go further than, the 10 Child Safe Standards recommended by the Royal Commission. They are:

SAFE, HAPPY AND ENGAGED CHILDREN

Committed leadership, governance and culture

Children and young people are safe, informed and actively participate in organisation

Families and communities involved in safety settings

Equity upheld and diversity respected

Robust recruitment and screening

Effective complaints management

Ongoing education and training

Safe physical and online environments

Regular improvement

Child safe and wellbeing policies and procedures

The National Child Safe Framework

The School/College's Child Safe Program is also based on the ASA/ADSAFE The National Child Safe Framework. This framework includes a set of Child Safe Standards that express the School/College's own overarching commitment to the Child Safe values and principles that guide the development of our Child Safe Program. Our framework builds on the National Principles. These Standards are:

Standard 1: Committed Leadership, Governance and Culture

Standard 2: Children are Safe, Informed and Participate

Standard 3: Partnering with Families, Carers and Communities

Standard 4: Equity is Promoted and Diversity Respected

- Standard 5: Robust Human Resource Management
- Standard 6: Effective Complaints Handling
- Standard 7: Ongoing Education and Training
- Standard 8: Safe Physical and Online Environments
- Standard 9: Regular Review and Continuous Improvement
- Standard 10: Policies and Procedures Support Child Safe
- Standard 11: Adsafe Protocols and Requirements

Children and Young People’s Rights to Safe, Information and Participation

Seventh-day Adventist Schools (NSW) is a child safe and child-centred organisation. Our environment is friendly and welcoming to all children and young people.

We actively seek to understand what makes students feel safe in our organisation and regularly communicate with students about what they can do if they feel unsafe.

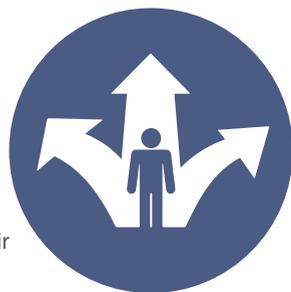

We actively seek to include students in decisions that affect them. This includes decisions about organisational planning, delivery of services, management of facilities, and classroom learning and assessment environments. We ensure students know about their rights to safety, information and participation. We recognise the importance of friendships and support from peers.

Parents/Carers, Families and Community Involvement at the School/College

The School/College recognises that parents and carers have the primary responsibility for the upbringing and development of their children. We ensure they participate in decisions affecting their children.

We ensure families and relevant communities know about the School/College’s operations and policies, including its Child Safe Policy and Child Safe Codes of Conduct, record keeping practices, risk management, and complaints and investigation processes.

We actively seek to include families and relevant communities in decisions about organisational planning, delivery of services, management of facilities, and classroom learning and assessment environments. We build cultural safety at the School/College through partnerships with relevant communities.

Valuing Diversity in the School/College Community

Our School/College values diversity and does not tolerate any discriminatory practices. To achieve this, we:

Support the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students and their families

Seek to recruit a workforce that reflects a diversity of cultures, abilities and identities

Support the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of students from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds and their families

Ensure all Staff and Direct Contact Volunteers and Direct Contact Contractors have training about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures, disability, culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and those with particular experiences or needs

Welcome students with a disability and their families and act to promote their participation

Have a physical environment that actively celebrates diverse cultures and recognises cultural difference

Support students and families of diverse sexuality and act to promote their participation

Commit to ensuring our facilities promote the inclusion of students of all abilities

Our Child Safe Program

Seventh-day Adventist Schools (NSW) is committed to the effective implementation of our Child Safe Program and ensuring that it is appropriately reviewed and updated. We adopt a risk management approach by identifying key risk indicators and assessing child safety risks based on a range of factors including the nature of our School/College's activities, physical and online environments and the characteristics of the student body.

Our Child Safe Program relates to all aspects of child safety and protecting students from abuse or other harm, and establishes work systems, practices, policies and procedures to create and maintain a child safe environment and culture at the School/College. It includes:

- 1 Child Safe Codes of Conduct
- 2 clear information as to what constitutes child abuse and other harm and associated key indicators of abuse or other harm
- 3 clear procedures for reporting child safety incidents or concerns internally, and for responding to incidents or allegations of child abuse or other harm
- 4 strategies to support, encourage and enable Staff, Volunteers, Contractors, parents/carers and students to understand, identify, discuss and report child safe matters
- 5 procedures for recruiting and screening members of the Leadership Team, Staff, Volunteers and Contractors
- 6 procedures for reporting to external agencies, including Mandatory Reporting to DCJ, Reportable Conduct, and Reporting to Police
- 7 pastoral care strategies designed to empower students and keep them safe
- 8 strategies to support and encourage the participation and inclusion of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students, students from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds and students with disability
- 9 child safe training
- 10 information regarding the steps to take after a disclosure of abuse or other harm to protect, support and assist students
- 11 guidelines with respect to record keeping and confidentiality
- 12 policies to ensure compliance with all relevant laws, regulations and standards (including the The National Child Safe Framework and the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations)
- 13 a system for continuous review and improvement.

As a part of Seventh-day Adventist Schools (NSW) induction process, all Staff, as well as Direct Contact Volunteers and Direct Contact Contractors are required to complete induction in our child safe policies, practices and procedures. All Staff, as well as Direct Contact Volunteers and Direct Contact Contractors also receive refresher and ongoing child safe training.

Staff, Direct Contact and Regular Volunteers, and Direct Contact and Regular Contractors are supported and supervised by the School/College's Child Safe Advocates and Leadership Team to ensure that they are compliant with the School/College's approach to child safe.

Reporting Child Safe Incidents or Concerns to the School/College

Our Child Safe Program provides detailed guidance for Board of Directors members, Staff, Volunteers and Contractors on how to identify key indicators of child abuse and other harm and how to report child safe incidents or concerns internally at the School/College. It also contains detailed procedures with respect to the reporting of child safe incidents or concerns to relevant external authorities.

Students at the School/College are provided with information about and encouraged to use multiple pathways to raise child safe incidents or concerns about or at the School/College. These include informal and formal ways, an 'anonymous' way, and through external child advocacy or child safe organisations.

Parents/carers, family members and other community members who have child safe concerns or who suspect that a child or young person associated with the School/College may be subject to abuse or other harm can contact the School/College's Child Safe Advocate/s by phoning the school/college. If the concern relates to the Principal, then contact the CEO/Executive Director of Education of the relevant Adventist Schools' company.

Students, parents/carers, family members and other community members can also raise child safe incidents or concerns through the School/College's Complaints Handling Guidelines, also available as a public facing document.

Any person can also contact the Senior Child Safe Advocate, or the CEO/Executive Director of Education of the relevant Adventist Schools company if they have concerns regarding the School/College's leadership in relation to child safety. Whenever there are concerns that a child or young person is in immediate danger the Police should be called on 000.

Communications will be treated confidentially on a "need to know basis".

Responsibilities for Child Safe at the School/College

Child protection and safety is everyone's responsibility. All adults in the School/College community have a shared responsibility for contributing to the safety and protection of students. Specific responsibilities include:

The School/College's Child Safe Advocates

A number of senior staff members are nominated as the School/College's Child Safe Advocates. Our Child Safe Advocates receive additional specialised training with respect to child safe and protection issues. They are a point of contact for raising child safe concerns within the School/College. They are also responsible for championing child safety within the School/College and assisting in coordinating responses to child safe incidents. A Child Safe Advocate is available by contacting the school/college's phone number.

The Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is responsible for approving our Child Safe Program and ensuring that the School/College has appropriate resources to effectively implement the The National Child Safe Framework and the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations published by the Australian Human Rights Commission, and our Child Safe Program.

The Board of Directors's Child Safe Champion

One member of the Board of Directors is appointed or identified as a Child Safe Champion. The Child Safe Champion is responsible for ensuring that a child safe culture is prioritised, modelled and championed at the Board of Directors level of the School/College.

The Principal

The Senior Child Safe Advocate (Principal) is responsible, and will be accountable for, the operational management of the School/College, and the Child Safe Program. The Principal is responsible for taking all practical measures to ensure that this Child Safe Policy and the School/College's Child Safe Program is implemented effectively and that a strong and sustainable child safe culture is maintained within the School/College.

The Child Safe Advocate has additional child safe responsibilities, such as being a first point of contact for all child safe concerns or queries for the wider community and coordinating the School/College's response to child safe incidents in consultation with the Leadership Team and the Board of Directors.

The Leadership Team

Each member of the Leadership Team is required to ensure that appropriate resources are made available in their area of operations to allow the School/College's Child Safe Program to be effectively implemented within the School/College, and to support the Principal in the practical application of the School/College's child safe strategies, policies, procedures and work systems.

Staff

All Staff are required to comply with our Child Safe Policy and Child Safe Codes of Conduct, be familiar with our Child Safe Program and understand their legal obligations with respect to the reporting of child abuse and other harm, and Working with Children Checks. It is each individual's responsibility to be aware of key indicators of abuse and other harm, to be observant, and to raise all child safety incidents and concerns with one of the School/College's Child Safe Advocates.

Volunteers

All Volunteers at the School/College are responsible for contributing to the safety and protection of students in the School/College environment. All Direct Contact and Regular Volunteers are required to comply with our Child Safe Policy and Child Safe Codes of Conduct and understand their legal obligations with respect to the reporting of child abuse and other harm. It is each individual's responsibility to be aware of key indicators of child abuse and other harm, to be observant, and to raise all child safe concerns with one of the School/College's Child Safe Advocates.

Contractors

All Contractors engaged by the School/College are responsible for contributing to the safety and protection of students in the School/College environment. All Contractors engaged by the School/College are required to comply with our Child Safe Policy and Child Safe Codes of Conduct. Direct Contact and Regular Contractors are required to understand their legal obligations with respect to the reporting of child abuse and other harm. The School/College may include these requirements in the written agreement between it and the Contractor.

Direct Contact and Regular Contractors include, for example, maintenance and building personnel, consultants, casual teachers, tutors, sports coaches and School/College cleaners. This also includes music teachers and other extra-curricular teachers and instructors who are engaged by students and their families directly, rather than the School/College, but have an agreement with the School/College to use the School/College's facilities.

External Education Providers

An External Education Provider is any organisation that the School/College has arranged to deliver a specified course of study that is part of the curriculum, to a student or students enrolled at the School/College. The delivery of such a course may take place on School/College premises or elsewhere.

All External Education Providers engaged by the School/College are responsible for contributing to the safety and protection of students in all School/College environments. All External Education Providers engaged by the School/College are required by the School/College to comply with our Child Safe Policy and Child Safe Codes of Conduct. Seventh-day Adventist Schools (NSW) may include this requirement in the written agreement between it and the External Education Provider.

Child Safe Human Resources Management

Seventh-day Adventist Schools (NSW) applies best practice standards in the recruitment and screening of Staff, Volunteers and Contractors. Our recruitment procedures ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to engage the most suitable and appropriate people to work with children and young people. All Staff, Direct Contact Volunteers and Direct Contact and Regular Contractors are required to maintain a valid Working with Children Check.

The School/College ensures that the Leadership Team, Staff and Direct Contact Volunteers and Direct Contact Contractors undergo child safe induction, and ongoing education and training as part of our commitment to safeguarding children and young people from harm.

Staff, Direct Contact Volunteers and Direct Contact Contractors are subject to regular supervision and performance monitoring whilst engaging with students.

THE SCHOOL/COLLEGE ENSURES THAT PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS FOR STAFF INCLUDE CHILD SAFE EDUCATION AND TRAINING PROGRAMS.

Child Safe Risk Management

The School/College recognises the importance of a risk management approach to minimising the potential for child abuse or harm to occur and we use this information to inform our policies, procedures and activity planning.

Record Keeping

The School/College has a Child Safe Record Keeping policy and is committed to best practice record keeping. In maintaining records of child safety incidents or concerns, the School/College maintains confidentiality and privacy for students and families in accordance with federal and state privacy legislation.

Policy and Program Review

Seventh-day Adventist Schools (NSW) is committed to the continuous improvement of our Child Safe Program. The Program is regularly reviewed for overall effectiveness and to ensure compliance with all child protection related laws, regulations and standards.

The School/College is committed to actively seeking, actioning, and incorporating into this Policy, feedback from students, families, the wider School/College community, Staff, Volunteers and Contractors, and will communicate any adjustments or amendments widely throughout the School/College community.

Non-Compliance with Our Child Safe Policy

Seventh-day Adventist Schools (NSW) enforces this Child Safe Policy and our Child Safe Codes of Conduct. In the event of any non-compliance, we will instigate a review that may result in a range of measures including (depending on the severity of the breach):

Remedial education

The restriction of duties

Counselling

Suspension

Increased supervision

In the case of serious breaches, termination of employment, contract or engagement

